

Form CRS – Client Relationship Summary

Jenny Weaver Capital LLC (doing business as Senstomi)

March 25, 2026

Introduction

Jenny Weaver Capital LLC, doing business as Senstomi (“Adviser”), is registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as an investment adviser. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ, and it is important for you to understand the differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at www.Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

What types of investment services and advice can you provide me?

Senstomi provides non-discretionary investment advisory services to retail investors through a digital platform. We deliver personalized investment advice to help individuals make informed financial decisions during periods of financial change.

As of this filing, Senstomi offers one active advisory module — “Income Hit.” This module provides rules-based portfolio-allocation guidance for users experiencing income disruption (e.g., job loss, pay reduction, or reduced hours). Recommendations are expressed as target allocation ranges (stocks/bonds/cash percentages) based on your inputs, stated priorities, risk tolerance, and scenario-specific liquidity needs.

AI tools are used only to translate deterministic calculations into plain-English explanations; they never perform analysis or generate recommendations. All investment advice is based on our proprietary rules-based system.

We do not execute transactions, manage assets, or exercise discretionary authority. You implement recommendations yourself through your existing financial institutions. There are no account minimums. The platform is available 24/7 through our web interface.

Additional information about our advisory services is available in our Form ADV Part 2A at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov (CRD #336311).

Questions to Ask Us:

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
 - How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
 - What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education, and other qualifications? What do those qualifications mean?

What fees and costs will I pay?

Senstomi operates on a subscription-based pricing model. You will pay $12 per month for access to the Income Hit advisory module. This fee covers personalized investment guidance and scenario modeling. There are no asset-based fees, commissions, transaction fees, referral payments, or any form of third-party compensation.

Pricing may change with at least 30 days’ advance notice to subscribers. You may cancel at any time before the next billing period; refunds are not provided for partial periods. Fees are paid electronically through the platform.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

Additional information about our fees is available in our Form ADV Part 2A at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov (CRD #336311).

Questions to Ask Us:

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?
- How do you determine what fee I will be charged?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you.

Senstomi generates revenue exclusively through monthly subscription fees. We do not receive commissions, referral payments, or any form of third-party compensation. This subscription-only model significantly reduces conflicts of interest compared to traditional advisory models.

Potential conflicts: We may design platform features that encourage continued subscription and engagement, which could create incentives to promote ongoing use. Our revenue depends on subscriber retention, which may influence how we communicate the value of our services. We address these conflicts by ensuring all recommendations are based solely on your stated financial situation, goals, and risk tolerance.

Additional information about our conflicts of interest is available in our Form ADV Part 2A at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov (CRD #336311).

Questions to Ask Us:

- How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

No. Neither our firm nor our personnel have any legal or disciplinary history to disclose. Visit www.Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research our firm and financial professionals.

Questions to Ask Us:

- As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?
